PUBLISHED YESTERDAY:

A New Romance by ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON.

DAVID BALFOUR.

Being Memoirs of His Adventures at Home and Abroad. 12mo, Cloth, $1.50.

Mr. Stevenson's new book is a worthy sequel to his great masterpiece, "Kidnapped." It is more than a story of romantic adventure, with conspiracies and perils and heroic achievements on land and sea. For it makes David the hero of a love affair, the description of which reveals the author's genius in an altogether new light. The adventures of David and his Highland sweetheart carry them both into Holland and France, where many interesting incidents occur.

NEW EDITION, UNIFORM WITH THE ABOVE:

KIDNAPPED.

Being Memoirs of the Adventures of David Balfour in the Year 1751. 12mo, Cloth, $1.25.

"Mr. Stevenson has never appeared to greater advantage than in 'Kidnapped.'"—The Nation.

A New Book by ROBERT GRANT.

Sequel to "THE REFLECTIONS OF A MARRIED MAN."

THE OPINIONS OF A PHILOSOPHER.

With many illustrations by C. S. REINHART and W. T. SMEDLEY. 12mo, Cloth, $1.00.

Every one who remembers at how many points, both tender and laughable, the story of Fred and Josephine's young married life in Robert Grant's "Reflections" touched his own, will be anxious to follow the couple through their middle life in this new volume. The illustrations reflect admirably both the grave and the comic elements in the story.

FOURTEENTH THOUSAND, IN UNIFORM STYLE WITH THE FOREGOING.

THE REFLECTIONS OF A MARRIED MAN.

12mo, Cloth, $1.00.

Two Juveniles by Mr. GRANT.

JACK HALL;

or, The School-Days of an American Boy.
Illustrated by F. G. ATTWOOD. 12mo,
Cloth, $1.25.

A fresh, buoyant, healthful story of the experiences and adventures of a manly lad at a boarding-school

JACK IN THE BUSH;

or, A Summer on a Salmon River. Illustrated by F. T. MERRILL. 12mo, Cloth,
$1.25.

A lively description of a boy's vacation adventures in the woods of Canada, where many exciting incidents occurred.

PUBLISHERS' TRADE LIST ANNUAL
For 1893 (Twenty-First Year).

Large 8vo, 3628 pages. With Duplex Index. Cloth, net, $2.00.

The Trade List Annual for 1893 contains:

1. The latest CATALOGUES OF AMERICAN PUBLISHERS, contributed by themselves and arranged alphabetically by the firm-names and smaller lists at the end of the volume.
2. A complete list by author, title and subject of all books recorded in THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY from January to June, 1893, supplementing the ANNUAL CATALOGUE, 1892.
3. The "EDUCATIONAL CATALOGUE" for 1893, which is used by the entire trade and educational interests as the most representative reference-list of School-books.

The above Lists, all bound in one volume, present in their combination so convenient and time-saving a working-tool as to make it indispensable to every one who has any interest in the purchase or sale of books.

The patent "DUPLEX INDEX" having given such general satisfaction, we are now applying it to all copies of the "Annual." Volumes supplied with the "DUPLEX INDEX" have the alphabet printed on the concave surface as well as on the margin of the page, which enables instantaneous reference, whether the book is open or shut.

Remittances should be made by Check, Money Order on New York or Registered Letter, as we cannot be responsible for any losses. Receipt for remittance will be sent by return mail.

 Unless special shipping directions are received, copies ready for delivery will be despatched by express unpaid. Parties so desiring can have their copies sent by mail, or by prepaid book-rate express for 94 cents per copy extra. Address

OUR NEXT BOOKS

READY IN SEPTEMBER

BY TWO OF THE "LITTLE WOMEN" Comic Tragedies

Written by "Jo" and "Meg" and acted by the "Little Women." With a "Foreword" by "Meg," portraits of "Jo" and "Meg," and a view of the house in which they lived. Uniform with "Little Women Series." 16mo, cloth, $1.50.

In the good old times when "Little Women" worked and played together, the big garret was the scene of many dramatic revels.

From the little stage library, still extant, the following plays have been selected as fair examples of the work of these children of sixteen and seventeen. With some slight changes and omissions, they remain as written more than forty years ago by Meg and Jo, so dear to the hearts of many other "Little Women."—"FOREWORD."

Brothers and Strangers

A Novel. By AGNES BLAKE POOR. 16mo, cloth, $1.00.

A bright, interesting novel by the author of a number of well-known magazine stories.

Helpful Words

From the writings of Edward Everett Hale. Selected by Mary B. Merrill. Illustrated by Frank T. Merrill. Square 16mo, cloth, $1.00.

A dainty little volume of selections from Mr. Hale's writings.

For Fifty Years

A Volume of Poems. By Rev. EDWARD E. HALE. 16mo, cloth, $1.00.

A collection of Mr. Hale's poems for several years.

THE RENAISSANCE BINDINGS

We issue this season a line of our most popular books, bound in full crushed turkey morocco of dainty colors, decorated in a style which is a revival of various old English artistic bindings of some seventy or eighty years ago. The books are beautifully hand-finished with solid gold edges.

Poems by Helen Jackson (H. H.)

A new and complete edition. With a new portrait of Mrs. Jackson. 12mo, $4.00.

Poems by Emily Dickinson

Edited by two of her friends, MABEL LOOMIS TODD and T. W. HIGGINSON. Both series in one volume. 12mo, $4.00.

NOTES IN SEASON.

D. APPLETON & Co. have just ready in their Summer Series "The Translation of a Savage," by Gilbert Parker, the author of "Pierre and His People," "The Chief Factor," etc.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, who already have several of Robert Grant's stories on their list, have just issued his "Jack Hall, or, the school-days of an American boy," and its continuation, "Jack in the Bush," two bright and successful stories, originally published in 1888 by Jordan, Marsh & Co.

MACMILLAN & Co., in addition to their rich list of announcements in last week's issue, will have ready during the fall "American Book-Plates," by Charles Dexter Allen, Corresponding Secretary for the United States of the Ex-Libris Society, with fifty illustrations, a work that has been for some time spoken of and expected; and "Synthetic Solid Geometry," by Prof. N. F. Dupuis, Professor of Pure Mathematics in the University of Queen's College, Kingston, Canada.

FREDERICK WARNE & Co. will issue immediately a "Dictionary of Quotations from Ancient and Modern English and French Sources," including phrases, mottoes, maxims, proverbs, definitions, aphorisms and sayings of wise men, in their bearing on life, literature, speculation, science, art, religion and morals, especially in the modern aspects of them. The whole enriched with a copious topical index. Selected and compiled by the editor of Nuttall's "Standard Dictionary."

ESTES & LAURIAT have now ready "Chatter-box for 1893," which holds its own and goes ahead year by year, and this season is making itself unusually attractive by a very fine grade of paper, which brings out its many illustrations most temptingly. The publishers also have in press "The Original Paris Salon of 1893," with French text, prepared by Ludovic Baschet, a magnificent collection of 100 photogravures printed by hand in colors from paintings by the most noted living artists of the world, as exhibited in Paris in May, 1893, and said to surpass any previous volume in beauty of illustration. In addition to these photogravures many text cuts are interspersed through the volume, giving portraits of the artists and sketches of their studios or ateliers. The volume is manufactured wholly in Paris. The retail price has been reduced this year and the terms to the trade will admit of liberal profit.

ROBERTS BROTHERS are bringing out a book that will be eagerly received by the mothers who were "little women" when first they heard of the delightful rainy days spent by Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy acting plays in the dear old garret. These plays have been found and are published with very little alteration as they were written by Jo and Meg forty years ago. They are to be called "Comic Tragedies" and the "little women" of the present day will no doubt take intense interest in the theatrical achievements in which their mothers delighted. Roberts Brothers also announce "Brothers and Strangers," a novel by Alice Blake Poor; "Helpful Words," a dainty little volume of selections from the prose writings of Edward Everett Hale; and "For Fifty Years," a volume of poems by the same author. Many of the very successful booklets of the house will this year be brought out in "Renaissance" bindings of full crushed turkey morocco of dainty colors, decorated in the style of the artistic bindings of seventy or eighty years back. The poems of Helen Jackson, Susan Coolidge and Emily Dickinson, George Eliot's "Wit and Wisdom," Bulwer Lytton's "Dramas and Poems," and the souvenir books "The Day's Message," "Daily Strength for Daily Needs," "Quiet Hours," "Tender and True," and "Sunshine in the Soul" will be among the books to be issued in "Renaissance" style.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.*

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. c. after the date indicates that the book is copyrighted; if the copyright date differs from the imprint date, the year of copyright is added. Books of foreign origin of which the edition (annotated, illustrated, etc.) is entered as copyright, are marked c. ed.; translations, c. tr.; n. p. in place of price, indicates that the publisher makes no prices, either net or retail, and quotes prices to the trade only upon application.

A colon after initial designates the most usual given name, as: A: Augustus; B: Benjamin; C: Charles; D: David; E: Edward; F: Frederic; G: George; H: Henry; I: Isaac; J: John; L: Louis; N: Nicholas; P: Peter; R: Richard; S: Samuel; T: Thomas; W: William.

Sizes are designated as follows: F. (folio: over 30 centimeters high); (Q. 4to: under 30 cm.): O. (8vo: 25 cm.); D. (12mo: 20 cm.); S. (16mo: 17½ cm.); T. (24mo: 15 cm.); Tt. (32mo: 12½ cm.); Fe. (48mo: 10 cm.). Sq., obl., nar., designate square, oblong, narrow books of these heights.

Ballantyne, R. M. Hunted and harried: a tale of the Scottish Covenanters. Bost., A. I. Bradley & Co., [1893.] 3+195 p. il. D. cl., $1.

The story opens in Dumfriesshire. After the breaking of the Covenant by King Charles II., it was the custom of the king's troopers to hunt the Covenanters and submit them to a species of torturing called "harrying" in order to compel them to renounce their faith, and betray the whereabouts of their fellow-believers. An attempt to secure Andrew Black, a well-known Covenanter, for the sake of "harrying" him, causes the revolt of William Wallace, a king's trooper, who becomes later one of the hated sect. On this incident is founded a story which deals specially with the history of the Covenanters, and which covers that period of Scotch history before and after the death of King Charles II. in 1685.

Champfleury, [pseud. for J. F. N. Fleury.] The faience violin; tr. by W. H. Bishop. N. Y., Appleton, 1893. c. 7+170 p. S. cl., 75 c.

How the mania for collecting incites to unscrupulous selfishness is the theme. Fleeing from mammas with marriageable daughters the wearied hero, whose mild passion is shooting, goes from Nevers to Paris, where he is initiated into the mysteries of faience by a "collecting" friend, who begs him to find him specimens in the old houses of Nevers. The Nevers friend is smitten with the mania and conceals his findings from the Paris friend who puts him on the track of them. Many comical scenes precede the great "find," the "faience violin."

Conklin, Mrs. Nathl., [formerly Jennie M. Drinkwater.] Looking seaward. Bost., A. I. Bradley & Co., [1893.] c. 2-383 p. D. cl., $1.25.

Longing for work, Helen Kline decides to remain single because "a single, middle-aged woman has glorious opportunities. I honor the wife and mother, but there is much she cannot do for her girls. Girls need the maiden aunt I love to be." This woman's work for girls of many characters makes the story. Looking seaward after several years, the noble woman sees her ship come in.

Combines the best features of the natural and grammatical methods. While the student is trained, from the outset, to comprehend the foreign idiom when spoken, and to express his own thoughts in the foreign language, the conversation is under the constant guidance of grammar, question and answer, address and reply being always kept within the limits of the grammatical knowledge of the student. The grammatical instruction, distributed over 124 lessons, passes in very easy stages through the whole range of German etymology and comprises the essential rules of German syntax.

is retained upon the market. This newer work is more theoretical and naturally follows the earlier one. The "Introduction to political economy" gives large scope to a teacher to develop his own line of thought. The aim of the "Outlines" is to give a systematic sketch of theory. Much space and attention have been given to the bibliography and to the subjects for individual study.

Buffalo, N. Y., Underhill & Nichols, 1893. c. 6+225 p. D. cl., $1.25; pap., 50 c.

It is claimed that a lack of a good souvenir of Niagara Falls has been often noted by visitors. The purpose of the present work is therefore to fill this demand. In accordance with their own ideas, the publishers have employed representative literary men to attain their aim. Contents: Niagara first and last, by W. D. Howells; What to see, by F. Almy; The geology of Niagara Falls, by Prof. N. S. Shaler; The first authentic mention of Niagara Falls, by Mark Twain; Famous visitors at Niagara Falls, by T. R. Kirk, Hyland C. The revolt of the brutes: a fantasy of the Chicago Fair. N. Y., C. T. Dillingham & Co., 1893. c. 3-123 p. O. pap., 50 c.

Records the doings of a convention of brutes at Chicago. The object in calling the convention was to improve the brute creation, rescue it from enslavement and help it attain an independent physical life. The means suggested to gain this is the extermination of the human race. The elephant is made president, and after the reading of his message, in which these points are presented, the members—horses, cats, dogs, birds, fishes, etc.—enter into a very lively and amusing debate, full of good points, cleverly and humorously illustrated with a profusion of excellent pictures of the "brutes" in the excited action the subject calls forth.

Prince, J. T., ed. Arithmetic by grades for inductive teaching, drilling and testing. Book no. 1. Bost., Ginn & Co., 1893. 2+86 p. il. sq. D. pap., 20 c.

Intended for the use of pupils of the first or second school year, and designed to accompany and follow teaching by objects. The illustrations give a graphic and orderly representation of what has been taught and serve as models for pupils in the solution of problems. The methods for using this book are explained in a teacher's manual designed to accompany all books of the series.

Rougemont, A. de. Manuel de la littérature Française. N. Y., W. R. Jenkins, 1893. c. 2+403 p. D. hf. leath., $1.25.

The plan of the compilation is to combine sufficient information about the life and works of authors, critical appreciations from the English point of view, brief, yet full notes on points requiring explanations, suggested by actual experience in the class-room, and questions which may serve to test the work of the student, and also for examinations and practice in the language. The compiler is a professor at Chautauqua.

Wallace, Lew. The Prince of India; or, why Constantinople fell. N. Y., Harper, 1893. c. 2 v., 4+502; 4+578 p. D. cl., \$2.50; hf. leath., \$4; $\frac{3}{4}$ leath., \$5; $\frac{3}{4}$ cf., \$6.

"The Prince of India" is a mysterious "Wandering Jew." This wanderer, after roaming through the world, until the fifteenth century seeks out those in power to impress upon them the faith he has been taught by careful study of human nature and systems of belief. He teaches: "In nature and every quality the God of the Jew, the Christian and the Moslem is the same. Titles may remain—Jew, Moslem, Christian, Buddhist—but all mankind are to be brethren in unity in God." The historical background is the conquest of Constantinople by the Mohammedans. Political intrigue, romantic passion, schism and conspiracy, military life, debates on creeds and state politics all find place in this book, for which General Wallace has made studies since he was made minister to Turkey, thirteen years ago.

The Publishers' Weekly.

FOUNDED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

SEPTEMBER 2, 1893.

The editor does not hold himself responsible for the views expressed in contributed articles or communications.

All matter, whether for the reading-matter columns or advertising pages, should reach this office not later than Wednesday noon, to insure insertion in the same week's issue.

Books for the "Weekly Record," as well as all information intended for that department, must reach this office by Tuesday morning of each week.

Publishers are requested to furnish title-page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, as it is of the utmost importance that the entries of books be made as promptly and as perfectly as possible. In many cases booksellers depend on the WEEKLY solely for their information. The Record of New Publications of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY is the material of "The American Catalogue" and so forms the basis of all trade bibliography in the United States.

"Every man is a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help thereunto."—LORD BACON.

LIBRARY EXHIBITS AT THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

THE "A. L. A." EXHIBIT.

IN the U. S. Government Building, in the Department of the Interior, northwest of the central rotunda, will be found the exhibit of the American Library Association, made in connection with the Bureau of Education. The plan of exhibit has four main divisions: (1) Library history and statistics, prepared by the U. S. Bureau of Education; (2) exhibits made by individual libraries; (3) the "A. L. A." Columbian Library, prepared by the American Library Association and the U. S. Bureau of Education; and (4) the comparative exhibit of library appliances, forms and models, prepared by the New York State Library School. The departments of library history and statistics, and of individual library exhibits, though well arranged and containing some fine contributions, are less complete than the other two divisions, and are chiefly interesting to the professional librarian. The "A. L. A." Library and the Comparative Library exhibit are the most important features of this section. The "A. L. A." Columbian Library—also known as the "model library"—of 5000 volumes, in complete working order, is made up largely from the contributions of American and English publishers. The books were selected and collected under the auspices of the American Library Association, and the library represents as nearly as possible the 5000 books that a new library ought to obtain first for its collection.

The selection of books was made in the most careful manner, based upon leading library catalogues and upon statistics gathered from the chief public libraries of the country; the collection was catalogued by the two most prominent systems in use—the Dewey decimal classification and the Cutter expansive classification—and arranged upon the shelves half by one system and half by the other. A model catalogue has been prepared for this library, which shows the two systems of classification, and in this respect may be considered one of the most instructive volumes yet printed on the subject of libraries. The catalogues may be obtained through the Bureau of Education.

The division of the library by subjects, with retail cost of the books, is as follows:

SUBJECTS.	NUMBER OF VOLUMES.	RETAIL PRICE.
Biography	635	$1,110.65
Fiction	809	1,009.01
General Works	227	982.23
Philosophy	96	221.91
Religion	220	606.17
Sociology	424	899.50
Language	108	325.68
Natural Science	355	1,022.60
Useful Arts	268	825.96
Fine Arts	225	783.06
Literature	694	1,284.54
History	756	1,867.00
Travel	413	1,187.53
TOTALS	5,230	$12,125.90

From 20 to 40 per cent. discount may be obtained on the majority of the books. If the catalogue is taken as an order-list, for $8000, roughly speaking, a 5000-volume library may be instituted, already classified, and with a printed catalogue already made, it being necessary merely to "accession" the books and afterward affix the class and book numbers according to the system chosen and as given in one of the two classed catalogues. Since the names of publishers and the list prices are given, the catalogue is complete for order purposes; its classified sections make a complete shelf-list, and the dictionary catalogue yet to be issued will complete the work needed for the convenience of users. The section of the catalogue issued includes, besides the portions named, a directory of publishers whose publications are included, the class biography arranged alphabetically in one list according to the names of the persons whose lives are told, and the fiction-list arranged alphabetically according to authors.

Side by side with the "A. L. A." Library is the Comparative Library exhibit, containing samples, models and photographs of blanks, forms, appliances, furniture and fittings, used in libraries in this country and abroad. An interesting feature is the collection of answers to questions on all departments of library work, gathered from American and foreign libraries, and showing in compact form the library methods of 1893 and the changes advocated by librarians. There is an extensive collection of book-plates from America and Great Britain, to which the Ex Libris Society, of London, has contributed many rare and valuable specimens. Samples of binding are shown from America, Great Britain and Germany, the largest exhibit being made by Otto Harrassowitz, of Leipzig. The exhibit of cataloguing appliances is very complete, covering the devices most in use in America and England; and there is an elaborate display of different styles of library shelving. The exhibit of library architecture is another interesting feature. There is also a collection of photographs of librarians and those who have aided in library work, arranged in albums, with brief biographical information; on one of the walls hangs a handsome crayon portrait of Frederick Leyboldt, the founder of this journal and of modern American book trade bibliography.

THE WOMAN'S LIBRARY.

The Woman's Library in the Woman's Building has attracted many visitors. It is intended to make this library a permanent one; to add to and complete it, as far as possible, and to house it in the Woman's Memorial Building, for which the Board of Lady Managers are now raising funds. The room in which the library is exhibited is the gift of the women of the State of New York. It is about sixty feet long, forty feet wide and twenty feet high, and is finely decorated. The wainscoting and furniture is of carved old English oak. The books, some 7000 in number, are arranged in low cases around the walls of the room. In point of numbers New York State leads with 2400 volumes, written by the women of the State, gathered largely through the energy and industry of the Wednesday Afternoon Club. Pennsylvania comes next with 400 and New Jersey with 350 volumes. The other States are represented with collections ranging from a hundred volumes down. Massachusetts, though she may claim more women writers than any other State, is represented with less than one hundred volumes, her committee having preferred quality to quantity—hence she is represented with a very choice and interesting collection. Foreign women have made contributions of considerable value. France, for instance, having sent about 800 volumes, all in exquisite bindings. Bohemia sent 300, Sweden 130, Italy 150, Germany 300 and Great Britain 500 volumes. Japan has signified her intention of sending a contribution, but at this writing it has not yet been received.

An author-card catalogue is in preparation—from which it is intended to print a classed catalogue with author-index—with an "information card" for each author, giving full name, date, and place of birth, facts as to education, full maiden name, and name and position of husband, if married, and brief distinctive details of life and work. Women authors all over the world are invited to send their works to the library, and monographs and special papers are specially desired. The library is in charge of Miss Edith E. Clarke, cataloguer of the Newberry Library, from which she has obtained temporary leave of absence.

THE CHILDREN'S LIBRARY.

The Children's Library has been a unique feature of the fair since it was opened in the Children's Building, on June 1. It was collected and arranged with rare discrimination by Mrs. Clara Doty Bates and Mrs. Alice L. Williams, both Chicago writers of children's stories, and it consists of books contributed by the most notable children's writers of the day, containing also pictures of the writers and autograph sentiments by them. Among the authors represented are: Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, known to children chiefly by her "Little Foxes"; Dinah Mulock Craik; Palmer Cox, who sends an original "Brownie"; Kate Douglas Wiggin, author of "Timothy's Quest" and "The Birds' Christmas Carol"; Louisa M. Alcott; Bishop Vincent, author of many children's stories; Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney, Mrs. Isabella M. Alden ("Pansy"), Lucretia P. Hale, Mary Mapes Dodge, Mary E. Wilkins, Thomas Hughes, Richard Harding Davis, Frank Stockton, Charlotte M. Yonge, Jean Ingelow, Elizabeth R. Charles and the Marquis of Lorne.

In a show-case in the middle of the room The Youth's Companion makes an interesting exhibit of the growth of their paper, showing a little old volume of 1827 alongside the present size. They also show interesting originals of manuscripts and illustrations.

It is expected that the library will have a permanent place in the proposed Women's Memorial Building, the erection of which is well assured.

WE are now at work upon the Fall Announcement Number of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY and earnestly request publishers to send us notice of books they have in preparation at the earliest opportunity. Intending advertisers also are reminded that their copy should reach us at once, otherwise we may be obliged to leave them out of one of the most important issues of the year. The Fall Announcement Number is most carefully read by booksellers, and publishers can find no easier or more sure means of bringing matters to their attention than by promptly sending information to THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY office.

BOOKSELLERS' ASSOCIATIONS.

NEWSDEALERS' AND BOOKSELLERS' ASSOCIATION.

N. E. COR. BROAD AND ARCH STREETS,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., August 30, 1893. }

Greeting to the Publishers of the United States:

THE 10th annual convention of the National Newsdealers' and Booksellers' Association of the United States will be held in Chicago, Ill., September 19, 20 and 21, and the executive committee hereby cordially invite all publishers or their representatives to be present.

Matters of great interest to the trade will be discussed, and we think it would be profitable for all publishers who can to attend.

The committee will esteem it a favor if all who accept this invitation will advise the chairman, E. C. Rahme, N. E. cor. Broad and Arch Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.

OBITUARY NOTES.

COLONEL ELISHA A. BUCK, editor and proprietor of the Spirit of the Times, and one of the most popular men in the world of out-door sport, was killed in the collision on the Long Island Railroad on Saturday, August 26. Colonel Buck was born in Pomfret, Connecticut, and began his career as a railroad man. In the sixties he lived in Buffalo and ran a lake steamship line in connection with the Erie Road. Later Colonel Buck came to New York and began speculating in Wall Street, but was unsuccessful. In 1875 he bought a half interest in the Spirit of the Times from George Wilkes, and in 1879 obtained full control of the paper. His acquaintance among racing men was very large, and he was owner of the trotter Harry Harley, who has often won heavily for him. He leaves a widow and two sons, one of whom was with him in the accident and is badly hurt. Colonel Buck was about fifty-three years old.

ANNE PRATT (Mrs. Pearlless), the distinguished English botanist, has just died. Among her best books controlled in this country by the Scribners and the Routledges are "Ferns of Great Britain and Their Allies," "Haunts of the Wild Flowers," and her most important work, "Flowering Plants, Grasses and Ferns of Great Britain," illustrated with colored block prints, which has taken a place among the standard botanical works of the world.

PROFESSOR RICHARD A. PROCTOR, the noted astronomer and author, who died in New York City, September 12, 1888, will be reburied in Greenwood Cemetery in the first week of October. His oldest daughter, Miss Mary Proctor, of St. Joseph, Mo., has sent a notice of this fact to the press, accompanied by a note asking that prominence be given to the following statement:

"Contributions from any friends of the late Prof. Richard A. Proctor, who may desire to send money for flowers wherewith to decorate his grave on the day the memorial services are held, will be most gratefully received by Miss Mary Proctor, the oldest daughter, at her residence, 616 North Sixth Street, St. Joseph, Mo. She is also willing to accept funds for the future maintenance of the monument and fence and perfect preservation of the plot for years and ages to come."

BUSINESS NOTES.

CHILLICOTHE, O.—H. W. Chapman has succeeded Miesse & Chapman, booksellers and stationers.

GALVESTON, TEX.—Clint League, bookseller and stationer, has lost $700 by fire.

NEWARK, N. J.—Noah Farnham Morrison, dealer in rare, old and curious books, has opened at 877 Broad St., Newark, with a collection of books, embracing works on history, genealogy, biography, poetry and general literature. Special attention will be given to works of all character on America, and particularly those relating to New Jersey.

NEW YORK CITY.—Andrew H. Kellogg, printer, designer, engraver and blank-book maker, has removed from 100 Reade Street to the handsome new Scott & Bowne Building, 409-415 Pearl Street (cor. of New Chambers and Pearl Streets), where he has more room and greater facilities for his steadily increasing business. He has added many valuable improvements, in machinery of latest design, new style of type, etc., to his establishment, and possesses every requisite for the production of fine catalogues, magazines, etc., in the most artistic style.

NEW YORK CITY.—Charles A. Kimball has taken charge of the New York branch house of L. Prang & Co., at 43 to 47 East Tenth Street, as manager, H. E. Brown being no longer connected with the firm. Mr. Kimball formerly represented L. Prang & Co. on the road and had charge of their Philadelphia branch.

NEW YORK CITY.—The Max Williams Company, of 306 Fifth Avenue, has just purchased the entire business of the late Paul Delarue, of Paris, publisher and dealer in etchings, etc., with agencies in London and Berlin. A catalogue of these publications, comprising nearly 300 plates, will be ready in a short time, including a number of excellent new subjects which have been in progress since the death of M. Delarue. A complete stock will be kept in New York and the trade supplied direct from here.

NEW YORK CITY.—William C. Rogers, doing business under the name of Rogers & Sherwood, printer and bookbinder, at Nos. 14 and 16 Vesey Street, assigned Aug. 26 to Leonard S. Howard, with preferences for $1453 to the following creditors: David A. Woodworth, $328; Edwin D. Meeks, $425; Nassau Bank, $700.

SAULT STE. MARIE, MICH.—J. P. Haller, bookseller and stationer, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., has bought a piece of business property, 80 feet front on Ashnum Street, in that city, for $22,000. The News of that place speaks in high terms of Mr. Haller's enterprise and business traits.

COMMUNICATION.

A WARNING TO THE TRADE.

To the Editor of The Publishers' Weekly.

THE public are warned against a very plausible young man, dark complexion, Jewish appearance, 20 to 25 years old, giving name of Percy H. Levin, whose tactics are to give some references, and tell a plausible story, asking for employment, usually on a commission basis, and after gaining the confidence of a person, to ask for a small advance of money ($15 to $25), and disappear.

Yours truly,
WM. BEVERLEY HARISON.

JOURNALISTIC NOTES.

THE current issue of Harper's Weekly contains a page of cuts showing the interior of the Lenox Library, New York City.

T. FISHER UNWIN, of Paternoster Row, London, is the subject in the Aug. 12 number of the Publishers' Circular, under the heading of "Publishers of To-Day."

THE September number of Blackwood contains a poem by Sir Walter Scott, which it is believed has been hitherto unpublished, and which, at all events, has never been included in any edition of his works.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON, Mark Twain and William Dean Howells have contributions in the September Cosmopolitan, together amounting to less than 8000 words, for which they are reported to have received sums amounting to $1666.

THE September Pall Mall Magazine contains two articles on the currency question—one by William Waldorf Astor, from the monometallist point of view, and the other from W. H. Grenfell, as a bimetallist. A society article by Mrs. Lynn Linton is included in the number, and the first part of a short story by Sarah Grand, author of "The Heavenly Twins." The magazine also contains an unpublished drawing by Sir Frederic Leighton.

THE nineteenth year of Unsere Zeit, Schorer's popular family paper, opens with the September issue. The very best writers of Germany are employed on this paper, and its mechanical details are almost perfect as regards type, paper, wood-cuts, etc. There will be a special edition this year in colored paper cover, to be known as the "Salon Ausgabe," parlor edition. Unsere Zeit (Our Times) has departments planned to interest all members of the family from the oldest to the youngest.

The Educational Review for September contains "A Sketch of the Life, Character and Work of General Samuel Chapman Armstrong," by Herbert Welsh, of Philadelphia; "Library Spirit in the Colleges," by Professor Stoddard, of the University of the City of New York, in which the course in English prescribed for admission to college by the New England College Association, and the methods usually pursued of teaching English in the colleges, are severely criticised; "The Educational Ideas of Leland Stanford," by President Jordan, of the Leland Stanford Junior University, in which the purposes and lofty ideals of the founder of that institution are set forth as they have not been known before; "The Old and the New Geometry," by Professor Halsted, of the University of Texas, a brilliant and popular treatment of a little known subject; and "International Educational Congresses of 1893," by Richard Waterman, Jr., of the University of Chicago, a terse and lucid summary of the work accomplished by the educational congresses held in connection with the World's Fair at Chicago. The address on "The Teaching of Civic Duty," delivered before the London College of Preceptors, by Professor James Bryce, author of the "American Commonwealth," is given in full. Professors Williams, of Cornell; Hanus, of Harvard; Seymour, of Yale, and Brander Matthews, of Columbia, contribute book reviews of unusual interest. The editorial and other departments are unusually full and interesting.

NOTES ON AUTHORS.

"THE WHITE SEAL" is the name of Rudyard Kipling's new story, which will deal with life around and about the Pribyloff Islands.

ALL the MSS. and unpublished works and the copyright of the published works of the late John Addington Symonds were left by him to the historian of Venice, Horatio F. Brown.

R. L. STEVENSON has been varying his labors in fiction by the composition of a history of his own family and its engineering works, which he proposes to call "Northern Lights."

OSCAR WILDE's new work, the writing of which has been attended with so much mystery, will be called "The Incomparable and Ingenious History of Mr. W. H.; being the true secret of Shakespeare's Sonnets, now for the first time here fully set forth." There is to be an "ordinary" edition of 500 copies and one of fifty large-paper copies.

PIERRE LOTI is soon to give the world a new work, the plot of which is based on scenes in the Holy Land. To obtain the true local coloring he will make a pilgrimage through Palestine, starting from Cairo as soon as the summer heat has abated, and cross the desert to Jerusalem. There will be no European in the caravan. His idea is to follow as closely as possible the route taken by the Holy Family in the flight to Egypt.

A WELL-KNOWN scholar and man of letters has sent the following jeu d'esprit to Dr. Murray, on hearing the news that the New English Dictionary has at last got through the letter C, and that D is now in hand:

"Wherever the English speech has spread,
And the Union Jack flies free,
The news will be gratefully, proudly read,
That you've conquered your A B C!
But I fear it will come
As a shock to some
That the sad result must be
That you're taking to dabble and dawdle and doze,
To dulness and dumps, and (worse than those)
To danger and drink,
And—shocking to think—
To words that begin with a d—"

THE seventieth birthday of Miss Yonge has been marked by a presentation to her from admirers in all parts of the world. An album containing 5000 autographs and criticisms of her writings was left on her birthday at her house in the village of Otterbourne, Hampshire, England. On the front page is the following inscription, in an illuminated border:

"Charlotte Mary Yonge.—We offer you hearty congratulations on your seventieth birthday, and desire to express to you the great enjoyment that we have received from your writings, and our belief that they have done much good in this generation. August 11, 1893."

Among the signatures are those of the Archbishop of York, the Marquis of Salisbury, the Earl of Selborne, Viscount Wolmer, the Bishops of London, Manchester, Salisbury, Chester, Bath and Wells, Chichester, Leicester, Reading, Southwell, Cape Town, Connecticut and St. Helena, Bishops Selwyn, Jenner and Hobhouse, the Deans of Winchester, Windsor and Salisbury, Canon Scott Holland, the Warden of Keble College, Mr. Balfour and several members of Mr. Gladstone's family, besides the local clergy and gentry. The Queen of Italy sent a large photograph of herself, bearing her autograph and accompanied by a congratulatory note.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

CALDWELL & HOLT, Staunton, Va., have ready a "Laboratory Manual," by Z. B. M. Zerr.

CHARLES H. KERR & CO. have just published "Facts and Fictions of Life," by Helen H. Gardener, a collection of eleven readable papers ranging in theme from "Woman as an Annex" to "Common Sense in Surgery." Miss Gardener is most interesting and convincing when dealing with her favorite subject—the wrongs endured by her sex.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & Co. will bring out Salem Editions of Hawthorne's "Wonder Book for Boys and Girls" and "The Snow Image and Other Twice-Told Tales," uniform with the Salem Editions already issued of "The Scarlet Letter," "House of the Seven Gables," "Mosses from an Old Manse" and "Twice-told Tales." The new books are still protected by copyright.

It is said that the idea of Lew Wallace's "The Prince of India" was given him by President Garfield, who admired "Ben-Hur" immensely and suggested to General Wallace to use his opportunities in the Turkish capital in getting up a story of Constantinople. The period of the overthrow of the Eastern Empire under Mohammed II. is the historical background of this very remarkable novel.

THE NATIONAL PUBLISHING COMPANY, Chicago, issue a pictorial history of "The World's Fair." It is written by ex-Governor William E. Cameron, of the World's Columbian Exposition History Company, and contains an introduction by Hon. Thomas W. Palmer, president of the National Commission of the World's Fair, also a chapter on the Woman's Department, by Miss Frances E. Willard, member of the board of lady managers.

THE D. LOTHROP CO. have begun a new department of standard books for the home and school library; they also have a large line of kindergarten helps and many supplementary helps for teachers and superintendents. The success of Mr. Ober's "In the Wake of Columbus" has encouraged the publishers to prepare a fine library edition of the book. It will be limited to 250 copies, signed by the author and numbered by themselves.

C. N. CASPAR, of Milwaukee, is issuing a revision of "Caspar's Practical Law-Book Catalogue," and calls upon all publishers of law-books to send titles, dates, prices, etc., of any new books they have issued since the publication of the former edition of the catalogue. Publishers should give this their prompt attention, as Mr. Caspar desires to have his catalogue reliable and of real use to dealers in law-books who have ordered large imprint editions.

"TALES FROM Town Topics, No. 9," is now ready. The new story is a prize novel by Captain Alfred Thompson, entitled "The Skirts of Chance," a theatrical romance told with much spirit. It occupies about 150 pages, the remainder of the volume being devoted to the poems, essays and bright things culled from the pages of that pert and witty society journal. We congratulate Town Topics on having made a neater-looking volume than heretofore. Paper and type are very inviting.

DODD, MEAD & CO. will soon issue the letters that passed between John Winthrop and his wife

Margaret under the title "Some Old Puritan Love-Letters." Rev. Joseph Twichell in his delightful biography of Winthrop refers to these letters as among the most beautiful in the language. In them are many references to household matters and they present a charming picture of home life in those early days. Another work of interest will be "The American Girl at College." It will compare the different institutions open to girls—their courses of study, the relative expense, dress, means of support and dozens of other topics bearing on the subject.

THIS year's issue of "The Cornellian," the year-book for Cornell University, always edited by the Junior Class of the year, is a handsome and imposing volume, full of information dear to the hearts of the alumni of that successful college, now scattered through this busy world. "The Cornellian '94," so called because edited by the class which will graduate in '94, is the closing volume of the first quarter century of life in Cornell University, and contains a greeting to the class of '95, who now become publishers in a new epoch. They publish the constitution and many important records, and get up an édition de luxe in honor of the 25th anniversary of the founding of "The Cornellian." There is an introduction by the president of the university. Paper, presswork, binding and illustrations are deserving of praise.

THE NEW YORK HISTORY CO. have just published volumes three and four of their interesting and valuable "Memorial History of the City of New York," edited by James Grant Wilson. These volumes complete the work, and give a history, through the aid of many well-known writers, of all the many historical, literary, artistic and commercial features of old Manhattan from its first settlement to the year 1892. The volumes are as rich as the two preceding ones in portraits and pictures of notable people and places. Full-page portraits, taken from paintings by celebrated artists, are given of Alexander Hamilton, John Jacob Astor, John James Dix, Hamilton Fish, Washington Irving, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Grant, Farragut and others. The many text pictures illustrate New York City and vicinity, as it was in days gone by and as it is now. It is not possible to mention all the subjects treated, the third volume having sixteen chapters and the fourth twenty-two, each containing a single paper by a well-known writer. Volume third opens with "New York Under American Control—from the Confederation to the Constitution, 1783-1789," and offers with other papers an account of the beginning of steam navigation 1807-1812; "New York in the Second War of Independence, 1812-1815," and "The Beginning of New York's Commercial Greatness, 1825-1837," two graphic histories by John Austin Stevens, etc., etc. Volume fourth has a special literary and artistic quality, embracing articles on "Knickerbocker Authors," by the editor; "The Libraries of New York," by Frederick Saunders; "Newspapers and Magazines," by William M. Stone; "Nearly Two Centuries of Music," by John D. Champlin; "The Fine Arts in New York City," by Frank Weitenkampf, with detailed histories of our theatres, schools, colleges, clubs, societies, hospitals and other charitable institutions, churches, etc. A general index, very carefully made, to the four volumes is comprised in the last volume, covering 82 pages.

The Rudolph Indexer Book.

(Patented in the United States and all Foreign Countries.)

Method of Indexing is the same as that employed in the Rudolph Continuous Indexer.

The RUDOLPH INDEXER BOOK consists of a number of card-holders of heavy cardboard with one or two columns on both sides. On the back edge of each card-holder are two double hinges by which means other card-holders may be flexibly connected or disconnected.

Independent book-covers are furnished, and a book may thus be formed of one card-holder and later increased as desired. If the book becomes too bulky it may be separated and by adding covers two or more independent books formed.

The Rudolph Indexer Case.

(Patented in the United States and all Foreign Countries.)

Method of Indexing is the same as that employed in the Rudolph Continuous Indexer.

The RUDOLPH INDEXER CASE consists of a series of card-holders placed on their edges in a drawer, and they may be turned as the pages of a book, exhibiting at each view 272 single-line entries.

We furnish the INDEXER CASE in one, two, four, six and eight drawers.

The capacity of each drawer is thirty card-holders. As both sides of the card-holders are used it is equal to 8160 single-line entries.

The Rudolph Card Cutter.

(Patent Pending.)

This invention is for the purpose of cutting the entries or cards for insertion in the card-holders, but can also be used for many other purposes.

It is very important that all the slips to be inserted in the card-holders be cut at perfect right angles, in order that each entry will fit exactly to the others.

An unnecessary margin of only 1-32d of an inch on the top and 1-32d of an inch on the bottom of each entry will amount to 3/4th inches of waste space on each card-holder.

The cutter will cut cardboard where spacing between the printed or written lines is 1-64th of an inch.

THE RUDOLPH CONTINUOUS INDEXER.

(PATENTED IN THE UNITED STATES AND ALL FOREIGN COUNTRIES.)

(FRONT VIEW, SHOWING GLASS LID RAISED.)

(REAR VIEW, SHOWING DOOR OPEN.)

THE LIBRARIAN'S DESIDERATUM. THE MOST PERFECT INDEXER.

The RUDOLPH INDEXER SYSTEM possesses many advantages which recommend it to Publishers and Booksellers—in fact, to any one who has occasion to use lists of books, names or samples of goods, photographs, etc.

It is entirely flexible, allowing any number of entries to be placed in the INDEXER at any point.

It presents to the eye at one time as many entries as six pages of the American Catalogue.

Entries are protected from being soiled by exposure or handling.

Economy of space and economy of expenditure of both time and money.

The INDEXER stands 42 inches high and is 20 inches wide by 30 inches broad.

We shall be pleased to give further information and list of testimonials from leading librarians.

Through the courtesy of the American Library Association the INDEXERS are now on exhibition with the Bureau of Education's exhibit in the Government Building at the World's Columbian Exposition.

The Profession of Bookselling,

A Handbook of Practical Hints for the Apprentice and Bookseller.

By A. GROWOLL,

Managing Editor of "The Publishers' Weekly."

"The author has collected a stupendous mass of information on his subject, and manages to impart his knowledge with admirable brevity and clearness. It treats of everything that he ought to know, and of most things in which he can be even remotely interested. . . . If accuracy and fulness of information avail, the young man who masters Mr. Growoll's book can scarcely help making his mark in the world."—London Publishers' Circular.

"A volume, attractively printed, that deserves a place among reference-books by reason of its bibliography. Here are lists of works fitted to impart to the bookseller (and to the general reader) a general knowledge of the field of English and American literature, of Continental literature, of the classical and oriental, etc.; lists of trade catalogues, of library catalogues, of trade journals and literary journals; and a broad reference library. For its main purpose this is an excellent manual."—The Nation.

"Booksellers in this country [England] will find this work both useful and entertaining."—London Bookman.

"We wish to give you our advance order for that most valuable series of articles—'The Profession of Bookselling'—and wish to thank you for publishing in book form one of the most useful tools the trade has had placed in its hands for a long time."—THE FIELD & GIBB BOOK AND STATIONERY CO., Lawrence, Kansas.

NOW READY:

THE ANNUAL LITERARY INDEX.

Including Periodicals, American and English, Essays, Book-Chapters, Etc., Special Bibliographies and Necrology of Authors. Edited by W. I. FLETCHER and R. R. BOWKER, with the co-operation of members of the American Library Association and of the Library Journal staff.

THE ANNUAL LITERARY INDEX for 1892 is a new enterprise, complementing the "Annual American Catalogue" of books published in 1892 by indexing (1) articles in periodicals published in 1892; (2) essays and book-chapters in composite books of 1892; (3) authors of periodical articles and essays; (4) special bibliographies of 1892; (5) authors deceased in 1892. The two volumes together make a complete record of the literary product of the year.

THE ANNUAL LITERARY INDEX for 1892 forms the first supplement both to the new five-yearly volume (1887-1891) of Poole's Index to Periodical Literature and to the new A. L. A. Index to essays and book-chapters of Mr. Fletcher.

Bound uniform with Poole's Index and the "A. L. A. Index," in one vol., cloth, $3.50.

NOW READY:CHATTERBOX FOR 1893

BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE.

This name, a household word in every home in the land, has become endeared in the hearts of two generations, and the readers of the early volumes are now men and women who know that no books will delight their children more, or instruct them to a greater extent, than these dear old annual volumes, whose sales have long since mounted above the million mark. Nearly a hundred tons of paper are used each year in the production of this King of Juveniles, and month after month the presses turn into the bindery great loads of the printed material, the whole process requiring a legion of workers, who are kept busy supplying the holiday demand.

This year, to add to the enormous sales, the publishers have spared no expense or trouble in securing a paper that would do entire justice to this royal juvenile, and make the illustrations appear to their best advantage, and, if possible, bring the book nearer the zenith of juvenile perfection.

1 Vol., Quarto, Illuminated Board Covers, $1.25.

IN PRESS:The Original Paris Salon
OF 1893.

Prepared by LUDOVIC BASCHET.

This magnificent collection of 100 photogravures, printed by hand, in colors, from paintings by the most noted living artists in the world, as exhibited in Paris in May, 1893, far surpasses any previous volume in beauty of illustration. In addition to the 100 photogravures many text cuts are interspersed through the volume, giving portraits of the artists and sketches of their studios or ateliers. The text is in French. The volume is manufactured entirely in Paris, being printed and bound by skilled French craftsmen. The retail price will be reduced this year, as below, the terms to the trade being such as to insure a liberal profit. Correspondence solicited.
